Guest Speaker Breakfast
LtGen Benjamin Freakley, CG, United States Army Accessions Command

Join us for this opportunity to hear firsthand about challenges of the Army and perhaps the roadmap of the future. Accessions Command provides the Army with Soldiers/Leaders of character and competence, instilled with Army values, filled with a warrior spirit, persuasive in peace, and invincible in war. The Nation has the best and most competent, focused and lethal force in our history. Filling the ranks of an army is a difficult challenge in good times; yet now, even with the Nation at war, they continue to meet their manning goals and grow the force.

The Association of the United States Army (AUSA) and Business Executives for National Security (BENS) cordially invite you, your spouse and guests to a special speaker breakfast on Thursday, September 30, 2010. The breakfast will be held at the Westin Hotel, One East Pershing, Kansas City, Missouri.

We are extremely pleased to present as our guest speaker Lieutenant General Benjamin Freakley, Commander, United States Army Accessions Command. USAAC recruits the Army's officer, warrant officer, and enlisted forces.

General Freakley, an infantry officer, is a 1975 graduate of West Point. He served with the 24th Infantry Division during Dessert Storm, was the Assistant Division Commander of 101st Airborne Division during OIF (Iraq), the CG of the 10th Mountain Division and Combined TF 76 during Enduring Freedom, (Afghanistan), and was the Chief of Infantry.

Network at 7:00 in the pre-event area and breakfast will begin at 7:30. Membership is never a requirement to attend these events; bring guests.
